EVENT 9: CIRCUIT OF TITANS

Category: College only

Maximum number of participants per team: 1

Circuit of Titans (The Obstacle Course Race) is an exhilarating, obstacle-based sports event, specially designed for SPLENDORE participants to test physical strength, agility, and endurance. Competitors will face a series of challenging obstacles, like walls, ropes, and mud pits, each crafted to push their limits. This event promotes resilience, and strategic thinking as participants navigate the demanding course. Only those with determination and grit will conquer the course and emerge as Titans. Prepare for an unforgettable experience that challenges mind and body alike!

Rules of the Event

1. Participants must be physically fit and disclose any medical conditions that may affect their performance.
2. Participants must follow the marked path and complete all obstacles in order. Skipping an obstacle without will result in a time penalty or disqualification. Participants are required to attempt each obstacle at least once. If they fail, they may proceed after a set penalty time added to their race time.
3. All participants must bring appropriate attire to be worn during the participation in the race. Safety equipment, if provided, must be worn.
4. Course marshals will be stationed at each obstacle to monitor and assist if needed. Participants must listen to their instructions.
5. Any participant showing signs of injury, extreme fatigue, or distress will be asked to stop immediately.
6. Timing will be tracked from the starting line to the finish line, including penalties. Course marshals will track any penalty times for failing or skipping obstacles.
7. In the case of a tie, participants with the fewest penalties or fastest obstacle completion time will place higher.
8. Physical contact with other participants is strictly prohibited. Unsportsmanlike conduct, such as pushing, obstructing others, or tampering with obstacles, will result in immediate disqualification.
9. Each obstacle may have specific rules outlined by the marshals. Failure to follow these may result in penalties.

10. If an obstacle is deemed unsafe due to weather or other conditions, it may be skipped or modified at the discretion of the organizers.
11. Skipping an obstacle without a valid reason will result in a penalty, such as an additional time. A second violation of any rule may result in disqualification. Cheating or intentional rule-breaking will result in immediate disqualification.
12. Medical personnel will be available on-site. Any participant who feels unwell should seek immediate assistance. Participants must notify the nearest marshal if they or another participant require medical help.
13. The decisions of the race officials and marshals are final.
14. Any disputes must be reported to the organizers within 10 minutes of the race's conclusion.

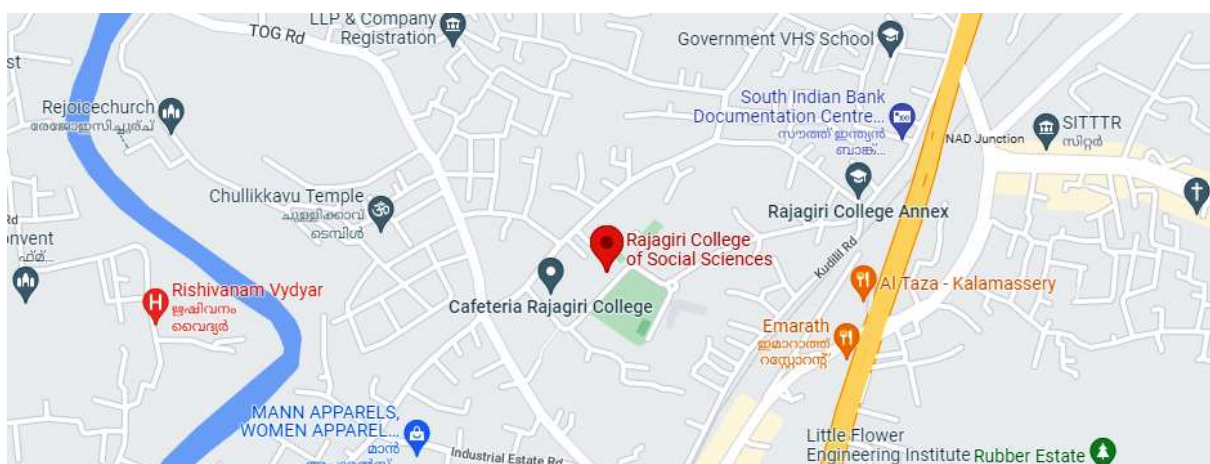

NOTE: If the number of teams registering for the event is less than three, the event will be held but only consolation prizes will be awarded to the participants.
