EVENT 10: POINT BREAK

Category: College only

Maximum number of participants per team: 2

Point Break is a multi-stage offline debate competition where knowledge, critical thinking, and verbal creativity matter. The broad theme of debate is “Technology and Society”.

Rules of the Event

1. A maximum of two teams can register from each institution.
2. Point Break is a team event; each team must consist of two members.
3. The debate can be conducted in English or Malayalam, provided both participants can understand both languages. Participants may choose their preferred language.
4. In case of a larger number of teams, a selection round will be held prior to the competition.
5. All rounds will follow the general theme, and participants must be well-versed in the topic before arrival.
6. The event consists of three rounds.
7. Evaluation will be based on content, confidence, presentation skills, and the strength of arguments.

Preliminary Round

8. One member must speak for the topic, and the other must speak against it. Each member will have 2 minutes to present.
9. Each participant will be given 5 minutes for preparation.
10. Eight teams will qualify for the second round.

Qualifier Round

11. In this round, both participants will compete together against another team.
12. Teams will draw lots to decide if they will speak for or against the topic. The outcome of the selection cannot be refused.
13. Each team will receive 5 minutes to prepare.
14. The first participant defending the topic will speak for 3 minutes, followed by the first participant against the topic, who will also speak for 3 minutes.
15. The second participant for the defending team will speak for 3 minutes, followed by the second participant against the topic, who will also speak for 3 minutes.
16. Each team will have 2 minutes for concluding remarks.
17. Four teams will be selected for the final round.

Final Round

18. Teams will draw lots to determine if they will speak for or against the topic.
19. The format will follow the same rules as the Qualifier Round.
20. There will be a questioning period where the opposing team has 2 minutes to pose questions, and the responding team has 3 minutes to answer.
21. After this, the audience will have the opportunity to ask one question each to both teams. Only fair and clear questions directly related to the debate will be allowed.
22. Each team will have 2 minutes for concluding remarks, where they can summarize their arguments and responses to the questions posed. No new arguments may be introduced in this period.

Note: If fewer than three teams register for the event, it will still be held, but only consolation prizes will be awarded to participants. Registration is exclusively for college students.
