EVENT 5: CELLULOID

Mode: Online

Maximum number of participants per team: 4 - 8

Celluloid is an exciting short film-making competition that provides a platform for creative minds to bring their stories to life. Participants can showcase their filmmaking skills, from scriptwriting and directing to editing and cinematography. The event celebrates storytelling, innovation, and artistic expression, encouraging filmmakers to push boundaries and explore diverse themes.

Rules of the Event

1. The event is a typical film-making challenge in which the teams should create a complete film (pre-production, production, and post-production) within the given 96 hours based on the theme/topic given.
2. Being an online event the event will happen prior to the day of SPLENDORE 2024 . The date will be announced to the registered participants via the confirmation mail.
3. The winners will be awarded the first and second prizes only.
4. All the submitted films will be kept strictly confidential and will not be show nor made available for viewing by the participants or the public, under any circumstances.
5. The participant team should submit (in jpeg/jpg. format) their institutional ID (of each participant) and a letter of authorization from the institution, with the names of all the team members mentioned in it (mandatory).
6. The participant teams should submit/upload 'behind-the-scene' photos with a time stamp as proof of the making process.
7. A Google Form link will be sent to the leader of the registered teams in which the following details should be filled in/uploaded:
 - m) An authorization letter from the institution (containing the name of the institution and names of all the participants),
 - n) A scanned ID card copy of all the team members,
 - o) Title of the Movie,
 - p) Name, and role of the participants (as in the credits),
 - q) Language,
 - r) Name of the Director,
 - s) Name of the Scriptwriter,

- t) Name of the Cinematographer,
 - u) Name of the Music Director,
 - v) Number of team members (excluding the actors),
 - w) Behind the scene photos (time stamped),
